Text Messaging Privacy Policy

Data Age Business Systems, Inc and its affiliated service provider are committed to your privacy on the internet and support the principles of disclosure and fair information practices.

Confidentiality

When a Company uses Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider services, Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider collects, stores and process some personal information of Company and/or Company’s customer (all such information referred to as “Customer Information”), including the number the message was sent to, the content of the message, and other data necessary to provide service to the Company. When Company uses the Service, our servers may automatically record certain information about Company use of the Service (all such information referred to as “Customer Information”), including information such as activity (e.g., number of visits), data displayed or clicked on and other information (including browser type, IP-address, date and time of access, cookie ID, and referrer URL.

Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider acknowledges that Customer information, including Customer’s telephone numbers, and the fact that the number may be associate with a loan with Company and is non-public personal information belonging to Company and/or Customer. Except as may be required by law, Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider agrees that it will not disclose Customer information to any third party nor will it use any of the Customer information for any purpose other than to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. Accordingly, Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider shall maintain effective security mechanisms to protect Customer Information and information systems containing such information so as to ensure that Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider does not violate applicable federal and state privacy laws.

In the event that disclosure of Customer Information is required by written order of a judicial, legislative, or administrative authority of competent jurisdiction, Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider must first notify Company in writing prior to the disclosure and shall cooperate with Company in limiting the scope of the proposal disclosure. The parties shall assist each other in taking all reasonable steps for obtaining further appropriate means of limiting the scope of the required disclosure of the Customer Information.

Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider agrees that Company’s use of its services, including frequency of messaging, to whom messages are sent, the purpose of the messaging, and the content of all messages sent by Company is confidential information of Company. It shall not release such information to any third part. In the event that disclosure of the content of messages and/or information regarding Company’s use of the services is required by written order of a judicial, legislative, or administrative authority of competent jurisdiction, Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service provider must first notify Company in writing prior to the disclosure and shall cooperate with Company in limiting the scope of the proposed disclosure. The parties shall assist each other in taking all reasonable steps for obtaining further appropriate means of limiting the scope of the required disclosure of the Customer Information.

Our website may also contain feedback forms where feedback can be reported directly to our employees and contractors. Any and all information which is voluntarily submitted in such feedback forms is used for the purposes of reviewing this feedback and improving the Services. We reserve the right to utilize this information for marketing purposes, for instance by displaying selected comments on its website or in other communications.

Compliance with Law

Data Age Business Systems, Inc. and its affiliated service providers agrees that it shall comply with all applicable law in providing the services contemplated by this agreement, including any applicable provisions of the Interagency Standards for Safeguarding Customer information issued pursuant to the U.S. federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 U.S.C Section 6801 et seq.